Program Statement:

The Dadian Gallery exhibits art that addresses religious and cultural issues, as well as matters of the universal human condition. Works are not required to be explicitly Christian or include religious content. We review portfolios on a rolling basis for individual and group exhibitions. Please indicate if you are willing to be included in group exhibitions. The Dadian Gallery typically schedules shows one to two years in advance.

The Dadian committee makes every effort to review proposals in a timely manner. You will receive an email confirmation that your application has been received. Applications can take up to eight weeks to review.

Criteria:

- Willingness to give an artist talk in conjunction with your exhibition
- Ability to deliver or pay for shipment of art work one-way to the Dadian Gallery
- Provide print quality images and other information for promotional use
